27 September 1939 to 03 September 2012 NEWMAN, Harvey A. (72 years). It is with great sadness that we bid Harvey on Monday 3rd September at Ottawa General Hospital. Throughout Harvey's health difficulties, he was Caskey, an affectionate friend, whose love and devotion to Harvey were unsurpassed. Born in Halifax, Nova Scotia, predeceased by his parents, Lewis and Jenny (Jacobson). He is survived by his two sisters, Eleanor (Foltys), Halifax. Harvey will be fondly remembered by his cousins, Gary (Anita) Newman, Anne (Joe) Jacob, Betty (Manny) Agulnik, and a large number of close friends and colleagues. Harvey was a graduate of Dalhousie University was a Sub-Lieutenant at the Royal Canadian Naval Reserve and served with the Department of Justice, Ottawa the Department's Labour Law Specialist. Prior to his recent retirement, Harvey was awarded The Distinguished pastime, Harvey was an enthusiastic golfer and a fan of many other sports. Kind and compassionate, Harvey was a loyal friend to many, as well as being quietly generous. He will be sadly missed by all. The family thanks Dr. [Name] compassionate care and friendship for many years. A service will be held at 3 pm on Wednesday 5th September at Home, Windsor Street, Halifax, followed by the burial at Baron de Hirsch cemetery. A Memorial Service is planned for
